

A council work with a citizen making a service for the citizen/tourist - World sensation or?

Submitted on 24 Sep 2012 by Tine Müller

11th September 2012 entered an employee of the council of Copenhagen new toilets and updated, etc. on the site and they will do in the future - and toilet data is now up-to-date. I think it is the first council in Denmark far-sighted enough to work with a citizen on a service.
