Quick facts

-  Company: Eurofound
-  Sector: Population & Society
-  Product / service: Website
-  Type of data: Survey data
-  Origin: Europe

Description

Eurofound launched an e-survey - Living, working and COVID-19 – to capture the most immediate changes during the pandemic and their impact, with the aim of helping to shape the response to the COVID-19 crisis. The data covers a range of topics including employment status, working hours, work–life balance, level of teleworking and job security.

Benefits

The gathered data is visualised in a dashboard providing insights in the experiences and perceptions of people dealing with their work-life balance during the pandemic.

How open data is used

Eurofound uses an online survey to gather the data. The results are made openly available on the Eurofound website in order to enable other users to gain their own insights per European country.
