Description

Politikindex is a platform that summarises the promises and achievements of politicians and allows users to compare and filter these promises and achievements.

Benefits

-  Insightful – This platform provides an overview of German political parties and a list of political promises and achievements.
-  Transparency – With the platform, there is a possibility to compare politicians' promises with their actual achievements among others.

- 8 No pension until 70 (CDU)
- 9 Toll income and expense are calculated (CDU)
- 10 Merkel wants to fight the causes of migration (CDU)
- 11 upload filters are "disproportionate" (CDU)
- 15 Germany should keep the euro as its currency. (CDU)
- 16 Germany should keep the euro as its currency. (CDU)
- 17 Germany should keep the euro as its currency. (CDU)

How open data is used

The platform uses German election data and EP (European Patent) data to generate overviews of political promises and achievements.
