Stadt Mannheim
Website

URL	https://mannheim.opendatasoft.com

Quick facts

- Company: Stadt Mannheim
- Sector: Population & Society
- Product / service: Website
- Type of data: Statistics on population
- Origin: Germany

Description

On the website of the city of Mannheim people can explore statistics on the city's population, such as the distribution of child names, election results, and the population in terms of e.g. gender and living area. Furthermore, information such as street names and locations of containers is published.

Benefits

- Statistics are available for everyone, easy to access and can be filtered according to the respective interest.
- Residents find a lot of valuable information at one place.

How open data is used

Data that is collected by the city itself and subsequently organised and presented in an interactive format on their website.