

URL <https://www.monumentaltrees.com/en/ita/hd1>

Quick facts

-  Company: Monumental trees
-  Sector: Agriculture, Fisheries, Food & Forestry and Environment
-  Product / service: Website
-  Type of data: National and local forestry data
-  Origin: Italy

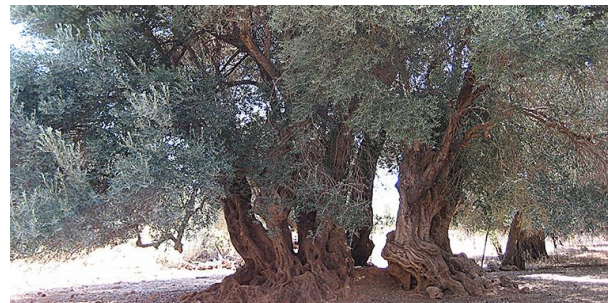

Benefits

-  Monumental trees aims to provide users with data about different trees in Italy.
-  The service is free of charge and easily accessible – users can search for a tree based on name and province.

How open data is used

-  Monumental trees collects data from institutions such as the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Forestry.
-  Analysed data is then shown on an interactive map for users to find and identify different types of trees in Italy.

Description

-  Monumental trees is an initiative that aims to provide users with a search engine to find different trees in Italy. Users can find information on various species such as photos, measurements and location details.