

URL <https://www.airtext.info/>

Quick facts

-  Company: airTEXT
-  Sector: Environment & Health
-  Product / service: Company
-  Type of data: Air quality and traffic data
-  Origin: United Kingdom

Benefits

-  airTEXT is a free of charge service that aims to provide the public air quality alerts via SMS text messages, emails and voice mails.
-  In addition, airTEXT provides a 3-day forecasts of air quality, UV lights and temperatures across Greater London.

How open data is used

-  airTEXT gathers data from the airTEXT Consortium. The Consortium includes the Greater London Authority (GLA), Environment Energy, Public Health England, European Space Agency and Cambridge Environmental Research Consultants (CERC).
-  The collected data is used in CERC's air pollution forecasting system to provide air quality forecasts for Greater London.

Description

-  airTEXT is a service that provides air quality alerts and 3-day forecasts on air quality across Greater London. The service is operated by CERC in partnership with representatives from all member local authorities, the GLA, Public Health England and the Environment Agency.