

URL www.autouncle.dk

Quick facts

-  Company: Autouncle
-  Sector: Transport
-  Product / service: Website
-  Type of data: Statistical data
-  Origin: Denmark

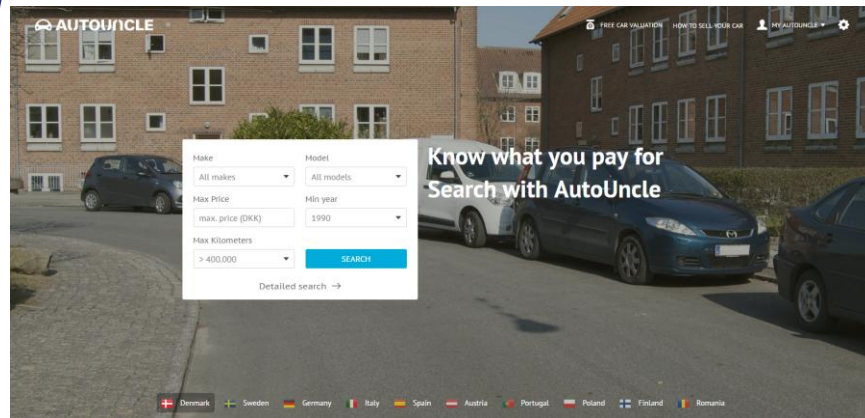

Benefits

-  AutoUncle is a second hand car market place in which each car offered is valued on the base of up to 100 indicators to determine its market price.

How Open Data is used

-  AutoUncle determines the value of the offered car based numerous amounts of empirical data of which some are in an Open Data format, such as from the Traffic authority or Ministry of Transport

Other information

-  The company is also providing their services in 9 other European countries
-  The company provides assessments to the Danish Ministry of Taxation which is used to estimate the total levy to be paid on import of cars from Germany

