URL https://tilde.com/

Quick facts

- Company: Tilde
- Sector: Science & Technology
- Product / service: Service
- Type of data: Multilingual data
- Origin: Latvia

Benefits

- Tilde creates machine translation, online terminology services, mobile translation apps, and proofing tools which is used by an wide range of companies/government to facilitate multilingual communication in their everyday work and to grow their business.

How Open Data is used

- Data is collected from sites allowing free use and reuse of its content, as well as from public sector websites.
- The resources in the TILDE MODEL corpus were cleaned, aligned, and formatted into the standard TMX format, useable for developing new language technology products and services.

Other information

- Tilde operates from its three offices in the Baltic States with the head office in Riga, Latvia.
- Tilde has a long track of research and innovation projects, related to digital content and data management technologies, including the H2020 project in data take up and technology transfer.

Created on 19-06-2017