

URL <https://placeilive.com/>

Quick facts

-  Company: Place I Live
-  Sector: Regions & Cities
-  Product / service: Platform
-  Type of data: Different types of data
-  Origin: Lithuania

Benefits

-  Place I Live is a location based platform created to provide information about the living environment and its quality at the level of the address or postcode such as crime rates, transport, air pollution, noise level, demographic information, etc.

How Open Data is used

-  Any information that can be found on placeilive.com has been collected from official Open Data sources.
-  These data are provided by different states, local authorities, private companies and non-governmental organisations.

Other information

-  PlaceILive.com also provides data on distances to the main objects and leisure locations, education and training institutions.
-  PlaceILive.com is on the mission to invent the Smart City and help 3.7B city residents from all over the world.

