It uses for instance Budget data from Moldova's Ministry of Finance and economic, energy and environment data from the National Bureau of Statistics.

Other information

-  The Budget Calendar available on Budget Stories is a grid including the time of the year on the y axis and the steps towards approving a budget on the x axis. Within each cell, Expert Grup links the user to government reports relevant to that specific piece of the budget process, streamlining what could be a tedious search through multiple government sites to find this information.
